

Wilson, Kansas 2016 Czech Festival Run/Walk

Founded in 1883, Wilson is a typical small sized town on the Kansas prairie located in Ellsworth county. A beautiful community, nationally known landmark, and home of the famous Midland Hotel that was featured in the 1973 film "Paper Moon." Located just 2 miles south of I-70, Wilson is a pit-stop on any vacation across the state! The clearest lake in Kansas, Wilson Lake, is also conveniently located just 6 miles north of town. The small Czech community would love to say

"Vitame Vas" - We Welcome You.

For the 56th consecutive year, Wilson, Kansas will be hosting the Annual After Harvest Czech Festival. The 2016 festival theme, "Home Grown", reflects upon the many successful Czech Festivals there have been in the past, and encourages the same outstanding outcome for endless years to come. One of the many events this year will be the various races. Races will be held the morning of July 30th, prior to the parade.

All races will assemble and begin at the Wilson City Hall at 2407 Avenue E
